Nonprofit Network partners with AARP Michigan to host a summit on Recruiting and Managing Volunteers

Jackson, MI – Nonprofit Network is pleased to announce its partnership with AARP Michigan to present a summit titled "Recruiting and Managing Volunteers in 2024." Scheduled for Wednesday, May 15, 2024, from 1:30 PM to 3:00 PM EDT, this in-person event promises to be a dynamic gathering of nonprofit professionals and volunteer coordinators eager to explore innovative approaches to volunteer engagement.

In today's fast-paced world, where virtual and hybrid models dominate, recruiting and managing volunteers requires a fresh perspective. With people valuing their time more than ever, it's essential for nonprofits to find creative ways to attract volunteers while ensuring meaningful impact within their communities.

The Summit, co-facilitated by experts from Nonprofit Network and AARP Michigan, will serve as a platform for attendees to exchange insights, share best practices, and explore innovative ideas in volunteer management. Through engaging discussions, interactive sessions, and presentations from leaders in the field, participants will gain invaluable knowledge on revitalizing and enhancing their volunteer programs.

"This Summit presents a unique opportunity for volunteer coordinators to come together, learn from each other, and collectively address the evolving landscape of volunteerism," said Regina Pinney, Executive Director. "By leveraging the expertise of Nonprofit Network and the extensive network of AARP Michigan, we aim to equip attendees with the tools and strategies needed to create thriving volunteer communities."

Designed for all volunteer coordinators, this event will provide practical insights and actionable solutions tailored to address the specific challenges faced by organizations in Michigan and beyond. Attendees can look forward to engaging deeply with their peers through small group discussions and roundtable sessions.

Nonprofit Network, a capacity building center, is a leading nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting and strengthening the capacity of nonprofits to achieve their missions effectively.

Registration is open, and seating is limited! To register for this in-person event, please visit:
